

Kielland's forceps wandering application video – transcript of narration

The forceps should be held in front of the perineum and the anterior blade selected.

The anterior blade is applied in the manner of conventional forceps.